MRS. PAM BEAVER

As our Senior year drew to a close, we found that it was easy to express our feelings about a lady who has done so much for the whole school and the Senior Class especially. She has been a very devoted teacher and has done all she could to make school a more pleasant place. She has had great dreams for South. Perhaps many of them have failed to materialize, but she has never given up hope.

"Hold fast to dreams
for if dreams die life is a broken-winged bird that cannot fly."

The Senior Class Dedicates

This year the Senior Class has done something different. We have dedicated the '74 Southerner to two special people. During the candy sales our "Mr. Special" was known as "The Candy Man." Never has he been seen without a smile on his face. As we come back to South Rowan, there will always be reminders of Mr. Upright's efforts to improve the beauty of our school's campus.

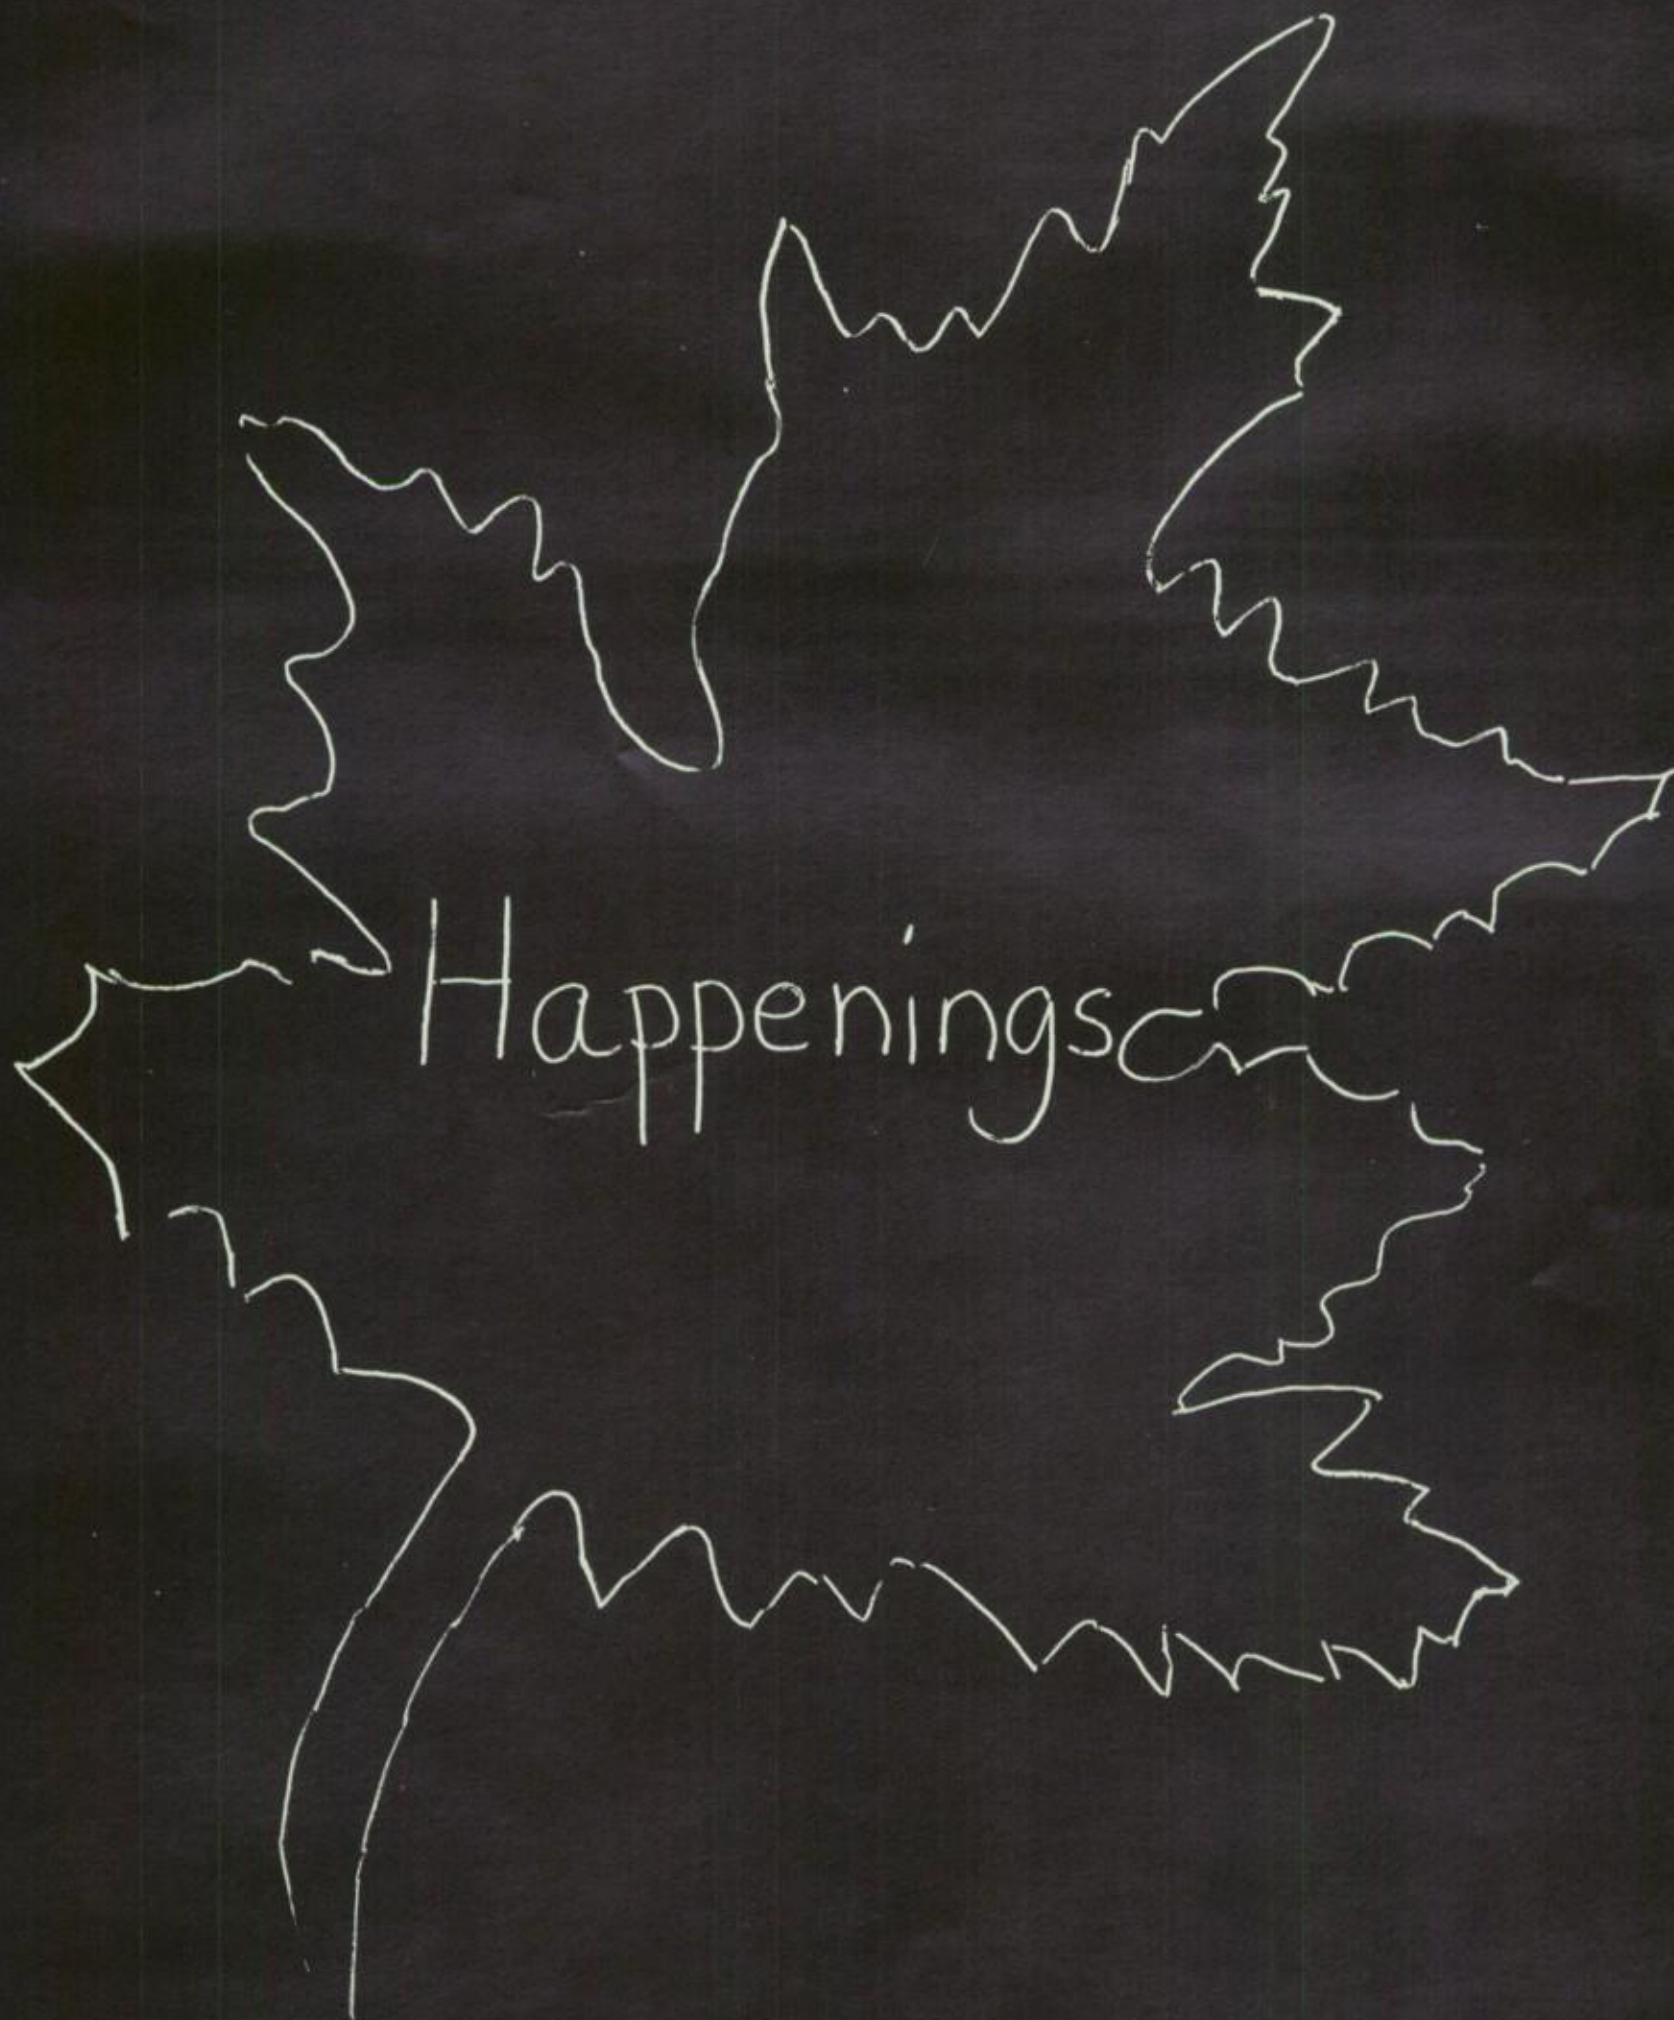

"A friend is a gift you give yourself."

The doors of opportunities are opened each day in the fields of academics, vocations, business, and the arts to the students of South Rowan. Mr. Brendell heads this drive with the cooperation of an outstanding faculty. There have been many changes brought about at our school in the past three years. Mr. Brendell is continually looking ahead to find ways to meet the needs and problems of South Rowan. He is a man with ideas and the ability to communicate them. He has the power to inspire and a dedication to serve.

Administration

Mr. Jerry Pless became our assistant principal for the first time this year. He has been a friend to all and has shown concern for our school and its students. He has listened to many excuses and managed to find time for innumerable other duties.

"A Hair-Raising" Experience!

We, the editors and advisor of the 1974 Southerner, feel that we all are, indeed, "the leaves of one tree." This was proved to us many times through the cooperation and encouragement of fellow students, faculty, and administration. Memories are beautiful and our memories of our association with each of you will linger long. It is our hope that each of you will enjoy and cherish the 1974 Southerner as a great friend. Thank you for being the leaf of a great tree.

Sina Shoemaker

Beth McKinney

Jennifer Helms

Judy Goodman

Mrs. J. Jaggart

"Memories can be such beautiful things,
Frail, ethereal as butterflies' wings;
Bits of bright jewels, part of you and me.
Built of our thoughts so lovely and free;

Life can hold nothing more beautiful, fair,
Than friendship's sweet memories lingering there."

— Eva Orloff

Ye Were All the Leaves of One Tree

"God gives us many wondrous things,
I see them day by day . . .
The grass, the trees, the sky above
And flowers by the way.
The sun so warm, the moon of gold
And stars up in the sky
All speak together of the love
Of Him who dwells on high.

But greater far than these are friends
He gives us on life's way,
Whose fellowship gives help and strength
And courage day by day.
I'm thankful for each one of mine
And pray that I can be
The loving, trusting, helpful friend
That each has been to me."

— Hazel Rugg

Linda,
 It really has been great knowing you this year. I'm surprised that we made it 33th the food in Stone Ec.
 33rd. I'll see you next year. Be good.

Linda,
For years we've been friends and only one more year to go before we're out of this place.
You're a real nice girl and stay that way. The best of Luck in the future.

Friend
